

STATEMENT E—Continued.

CONTINGENCIES—continued.

December, 1898—(Continued).

Paid Joe Braan, Jr., washing towels for Executive Department, August 1 to December 1, 1898-----	$ 8.00
Dobbin & Ferrall, oil cloth and tacks for Executive Department-----	1.15
Anthony Craft, washing towels for Secretary of State Department, April 1, 1897, to December 1, 1898-----	10.00
Austin Dunston, washing towels for Adjutant-General's Department, August 1, 1897, to December 1, 1898-----	8.00
W. H. Hughes, one letter basket for Adjutant-General's office-----	1.50
Western Union Telegraph Company, messages for State Department-----	.50
G. A. Mial, washing towels for Superintendent Public Instruction Department from January 15, 1897, to December 1, 1898-----	11.25
K. M. Turner, one dozen ink rollers for Auditor's Department-----	.50
W. H. Holloway & Sons, repairs to wheelbarrow and rake for Superintendent Public Buildings and Grounds-----	1.50
Southern Express Company, express on packages for State Department-----	32.61
Julius Lewis Hardware Company, two Welsbach lights for Auditor's Department-----	2.70
K. W. Merritt, United States Postal Guide 1899, for Executive Department-----	2.00
George Austin, washing towels for Attorney-General's Department, 22½ months-----	11.25
R. A. Cobb, State Librarian, sundry items of expense State Library-----	6.73
Jake Taylor, drayage for State Department-----	.70
Wm. Melville, carrying Supreme Court Reports to Fisher building-----	.30
W. B. Bridgeford, three days' labor washing seats House of Representatives-----	2.25
T. F. Brockwell, repairing spring on door Supreme Court room-----	1.25
M. R. Haynes, repairs to furniture in various departments-----	2.75
Austin Green, making one pair window fasteners for Supreme Court building-----	.35
Weir, Hunnicutt & Company, terra-cotta pipe, etc., for Capitol Square-----	28.75
Henry Faison, five and a half days' labor washing windows in House of Representatives and Senate Chamber-----	4.12
Walter Williams, carrying Supreme Court Reports to Fisher building-----	.20
Henry M. Clark, three days' labor moving books to Fisher building from basement Supreme Court building, and amount paid drayage, etc.-----	12.60